OVER NIAGARA FALLS-SAD TERMINATION OF A BRIDAL TOUR .- Buffalo, N. Y., June 21 .- Mrs. A. Rowland, aged about twentyfive years, wife of A. Rowland, manufacturer of fire-arms, 51 Boulevard D'Avroy, liege, Belgium, lost her life at Niagara Falls to-day. The couple arrived at the Falls on Wednesday last from the West. being upon an extended wedding tour the world, and were intendaround ing to go to New York to-day and sail for home this week. In company with her husband she visited the Three-Sisters Islands, and borrowing a pocket-cup of her husband stooped over to get a drink, when she slipped and fell over the bank into the water, being rapidly carried over the Horse-shoe Falls, which are but a short distance from where she fell in. Her busband stepped back a short distance from where she was, with his back toward her at the time, when he heard her scream, but was unable to reach her. The husband is prostrated with grief. Reports which might convey an idea of foul play have no foundation in fact. Every effort will be made to recover the body. A NEW FIVE-DOLLAR COUNTERFEIT .-Washington, June 22.-Information has reached the secret-service division of the Treasury Department that a new counterfeit five-dollar legal-tender note has made its appearance in Western New York. It is of the series of 1875, and has the names of Allison, register, and Wyman, treasurer. It is executed on a printed imitation of fibre paper, which is lighter than the genuine. The portrait of Jackson is good, but the general appearance of the note bad. Bankers pronounce it a dangerous counterfeit. A quantity of this spurious money was passed on Saturday at Buffalo. New York, and later several of the shovers were arrested at Dunkirk. The notes were probably issued from some Canadian point, as the parties arrested were traced from Canada, and had in their possession a quantity of small bills on Canadian banks, which were genuine, the proceeds, probably, of operations there with these bad notes. VALUABLE PROTECTORS .- The building struck is not very large and has two lightning rods at least-one at each end-and nearly all the buildings near it are similarly protected. The fluid entered the house just above the window, which was open, shivering the brass curtain-frame, and passing off obliquely struck the ceiling, making a hole resembling a bullet-hole on the under side, but shivering the floor above and scattering splinters in all directions. It seems to have passed along the floor to the fireplace and made its exit up the chimney .- Tidewater

Sunday-School Anniversary.- The anniversary celebration of the Fifth-Street Sunday-school took place Sunday night at the Vinth-Street Methodist church.

Long before the hour appointed for the exercises to begin the church was literally packed, many being unable to gain admitance. The ceremony begun with prayer by Rev. G. C. Vanderslice.

The programme was interspersed with singing by the scholars of the Ninth-Street school, Misses Ora Vaden, Xilia Owen, Anna Vanderslice, and Laura Cersley singing a quartette.

The other scholars who took part in the exercises, and who added a great deal to the occasion by their declamations, were: Misses Mary S. Dankley, "Careless Words"; Clara O'Brien, "Little Boys' Prayer"; Clara Wilkinson, "The Lonely Child"; Viola Morris, " A Hundred Years to Come"; Annie Jones, "Angels' Ladder"; Master Charlie King, "Practical Thoughts"; Miss Maggie Pucket, "Be Careful What You Say"; Susie Smith, "Missionary Address."

At the conclusion of the addresses by the cholars, Rev. Mr. Jackson, of Providence church, Chesterfield, for E. B. Dunford's Bible class, presented to the school a diploma, neatly gotten up and framed, giving the names of the officers, teachers, and scholars of the school. He was followed by Mr. Vanderslice, who in a neat little speech returned thanks on the part of the cholars for the gift.
